Job Title: Director of Youth Ministries

Reports to: Lead Pastor

Job Description:

The Director of Youth Ministries will provide the primary leadership and supervision of ministry to middle and high school youth at Cornerstone Community Church in coordination with the Youth Ministry Team that is consistent with the vision and values of Cornerstone Community Church. The Director will develop relationships with youth, parents and volunteers as well as foster a dynamic program for our youth.

The ultimate goal of Youth Ministries is the spiritual formation of the youth so that they are secure and confident in their relationship with Jesus Christ. Parents and other adults are critical allies in the youth's spiritual formation, and we desire to see the youth meaningfully integrated into the life and ministry of Cornerstone Community Church. By God's grace, our goal is to do all we can to raise youth to become disciples who love and follow Christ.

Responsibilities:

- Carry forward Cornerstone's vision for youth ministry that our youth will have a deep and abiding faith in Jesus Christ.
- Establish deep and caring relationships with our youth, their families and all volunteers involved in youth ministry.
- Develop relationships with parents and seek to involve parents and other adults as allies in the ministry.
- Lead and coordinate all youth ministry events for our middle and high school students (to include summer programming).
- Work with other leaders to create extended events (i.e. summer camps, fall events) that focus on teaching biblical knowledge and which demonstrate living the Christian faith through interactions with pastors, adult leaders, parents, siblings, grandparents, youth workers and peers.
- Recruit and mentor a Youth Ministries Leadership Team who will minister to the students.
- Develop the annual plan for ministry in coordination with the Leadership Team. The ministry plan should include Bible studies, outreach opportunities and ministry opportunities.
- Develop and effectively administer the Youth Ministry budget and oversee administrative needs.
- Provide regular update report to Lead Pastor.
- Provide a regular report to the Session (in writing or in person).
- Participate in staff meetings, retreats and other events as needed.
- Maintain supportive working relationships with staff, ministry partners, and volunteers through close collaboration and proactive communication.
- Perform other duties as needed or assigned.

Job Requirements:

- Have a personal relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ and be dedicated to growing in His love and being a living example of His teachings (as understood in a Reformed Christian framework) as expressed by the EPC – see www.epc.org). Be an example of God's love to all who enter the facility.

- Committed to the values and mission of Cornerstone Community Church.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Excellent organizational and leadership skills.
- Exhibits a team-oriented mindset. Cooperative and collaborative towards accomplishing the church's ministry.
- Ability to adapt and be flexible.
- Demonstrates knowledge of team management principles and budgetary controls.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality and self-discipline.
- Deep sense of compassion for the lost, hurting and marginalized.
- People-oriented: values working with others and helping people.
- Personal desire for excellence in work.
- Positive attitude towards church, staff, members and public.
- Be disciplined and diligent with time management, completing required tasks in a timely manner.
- Bachelor's Degree required; Master's Degree preferred.
- 2+ years related experience preferred.
- Ability to speak fluent English.

Terms: This is a full-time position that will include Sunday mornings and weekly contact work with youth and parents, seasonal activities and annual events. Schedule to be determined as necessary to fulfill the duties of the position (Sunday is a required workday). The hours may vary depending on the time of year and church demands.

Benefits: This full-time position is eligible for all benefits including medical, dental, vacation and paid holidays.
